

Nell Tyler

"Singer-songwriter Nell Tyler is a truly empowering and inspirational artist."

- Aldora Britain Records

Nell Tyler wants to make music with a difference, and make a difference with music. Drawing inspiration from the daily struggles of love, loss, and life with disability, Nell's music will hit you where it hurts, but kiss you better afterwards.

Sometimes hilarious, sometimes heart-breaking, always honest, Nell sings the quiet part out loud and gives you a peek inside a mind that doesn't quite have it all together, but is determined to face life with a song.

Nell Tyler

Nell has previously made a name for themselves as a well-loved busker in the Wingham and Taree area, and now, as a duo with bassist Ethan Webster, has brought their storytelling songwriting and musical blend of folk-pop-blues to venues such as the Australian Hotel in Wingham and the Flow Bar in Old Bar.

If you feel that Nell and Ethan would be a good fit for you and your venue, please reach out via email or phone. For more information, or to listen to examples of Nell's music, head on over to nelltyler.com
